

Do you know just what the Tolman Laundry means by "Family Wash"?

It means EVERYTHING that needs laundering-your personal apparel, the bedwear, the table linen, the towelsthe plain things, and the daintiest finery-not rough-dried; nor half done up; but washed, ironed and ready for use.

It's the whole laundry proposition - which Tolman service simplifies.

You don't have to worry with a washerwoman. You don't run any risk of loss or of damage. You're not taking any chances with unsanitary conditions. Your clothes won't come home smelling of frying and fat. You know the list of troubles you have. If it isn't one thing; it's an-

The Tolman Laundry changes it all. Their taking of your washing is the issuing of an insurance policy-IN-SURANCE AGAINST DAMAGE; AGAINST LOSS; AGAINST DISSATISFACTION of any character. They are RESPONSIBLE. They didn't ask for ALL the "family wash" until they had the facilities and the trained force to HANDLE ALL OF IT-and to GUARANTEE THE

Maybe the idea of sending the Clothes to the laundry suggests a prohibitive expense? There's where you are mistaken. The fact of the matter is I'm positively sure you'll find THE TOLMAN WAY COSTS NO MORE, if as much, as the method you're employing now. It won't cost anything to find out all about it.

Just drop a postal card, or get them on the 'phone, Main 2590, and have them send one of their lady representatives to see you. They'll be glad to do it; and you'll be glad you had them do it, too.

PLAGUE-STRICKEN SERBIA

Miss Elizabeth Shelley Quits Federal Service to Prepare for Hospital Work in June.

Miss Elizabeth Shelley, who has been a clerk in the Department of Agriculture, is leaving Washington this afternoon to take a course in nursing at the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, pre-paratory to going to Serbia in June to care for the plague victims.

Miss Shelley has been prominent in society both in this country and in Europe. She has been presented at court and has associated with some of the titled women of England, France and Germany. On account of financial reverses she was forced to seek employment in the federal service here. She is going to Serbia with Mme. SCRUTINIZING SEAMAN'S LAW.

Justice Department Officials to Decide When Act Becomes Effective.

Commerce Department officials expressed hope today of avoiding difficulties in putting into effect the new seaman's act through discretionary powers vested in Secretary Redfield, It was pointed out that while section 14, which provides for life-saving apparatus requirements, might become tive July 1, as the bill specifically states, yet it was within the Secretary's power to remit fines under it when it because the equipment was not available.

Shipping men have declared they would be unable to get the necessary equipment by July 1, and contend that a later section of the law providing that the act as a whole should become effective next November modified the preceding provisions.

Department of Justice officials now are preparing an opinion as to the date the law becomes effective.
